The Processional Hymn

[H] 154

The Collect

Almighty and everliving God, in your tender love for the human race you sent your Son our Savior Jesus Christ to take upon him our nature, and to suffer death upon the cross, giving us the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant that we may walk in the way of his suffering, and also share in his resurrection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Reading

Isaiah 50:4-9a

The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens-- wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backward. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. The Lord GOD helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord GOD who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

- 9 Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am in | trouble; *
my eye is consumed with sorrow,
and also my throat and my | belly.
- 10 For my life is wasted with grief,
and my years with | sighing; *
my strength fails me because of affliction,
and my bones are con- | sumed.
- 11 I have become a reproach to all my enemies
and even to my neighbors,
a dismay to those of my ac- | quaintance; *
when they see me in the street they a- | void me.
- 12 I am forgotten like a dead man, out of | mind; *
I am as useless as a broken | pot.
- 13 For I have heard the whispering of the crowd;
fear is all a- | round; *
they put their heads together against me;
they plot to take my | life.
- 14 But as for me, I have trusted in you, O | Lord. *
I have said, "You are my | God.
- 15 My times are in your | hand; *
rescue me from the hand of my enemies,
and from those who | persecute me.
- 16 Make your face to shine upon your | servant, *
and in your loving-kindness | save me."

The Second Reading

Philippians 2:5-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death-- even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The Offertory Anthem

"When Jesus Wept"

When Jesus wept,
the falling tear in mercy flowed beyond all bound;
when Jesus groaned,
a trembling fear seized all the guilty world around.
